The 1920s was called the Golden 20’s, the Roaring 20’s, the Booming 20’s, the Jazz Age, and many other names. Whatever the name, it was a strange time. It was a time of change and new freedoms, but also a time of tension and intolerance. It started with a feeling of isolationism and finished with a crash. It was truly a time to remember.

Link if you are absent: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RN7ftyZigYs

1. The sale and consumption of alcohol was made illegal by the ___th Amendment.

2. There was P____________, but nobody paid attention to it.

3. Liquor was now sold in places called: saloons. speakeasies. (circle)

4. True or False: Rival gangs battled for control of illegal liquor territories.

5. Prohibition was the symbol for the _______'s.

6. In 1920, for the first time, more Americans lived in u__________ centers than in country towns and villages.

7. Madison Avenue came to stand for the bustling new business of a______________.

8. ______________ Street came to represent expanding economic opportunities.

9. The number of millionaires jumped by over _____% in the 1920s.

10. ________________ was a uniquely American music.

11. New York’s lower east side was the gateway to America for ________________.

12. Change was centered in the: cities. farm villages. (circle)

13. Throughout the 20’s, new ________________ would transform daily life.

14. True or False: America was electrified in the 1920s.

15. The ________________ would give Americans the sense of autonomy and freedom.

16. ________________, bridges, and tunnels would become part of a national infrastructure that would knit the country together.

17. True or False: Billboards (roadside advertising) first became a phenomenon in the 1920s.

18. Along with advertising came the expansion of a new consumer concept called C______________.
19. Buy now, ________________ later became the order of the day.

20. Radio started in ________________.

21. In 1920, women won the right to ________________.

22. The more daring women of the day were known as: flippers. flappers. (circle)

23. True or False: Rural areas changed as quickly as the cities.

24. In 1925, John Scopes was accused of teaching D______________ Theory of Evolution.

25. In 1925, John Scopes was found: guilty. not guilty. (circle)

26. Tensions of the period went into intolerance and into the ________________ ________________.

27. The Klan was opposed to ________________, Catholics, and Jews.

28. Throughout the decade, an estimated __________ people were lynched.

29. People seemed hungry for old fashioned ________________.

30. George Herman ____________, the Babe, reshaped America’s pastime.

31. True of False: The public did not have much interest in flying during the 1920s.

32. Charles Lindbergh’s flight represented the mastery of: piloting. technology. (circle)

33. In 1929, Admiral ____________ flew over the ____________ ____________.

34. True or False: By 1929, Americans were full of optimism.

35. On October 29, 1929, the stock market went into a f__________ - f__________.

36. That day was when the stock market: crashed. boomed. (circle)